N F Railway Construction celebrates Constitution Day

Maligaon,26th November 2019.

N F Railway Construction Organisation celebrated the Constitution Day in a befitting manner in its HdQrs and in all the field units today on 26.11.2019 to commemorate adoption of Constitution of India on 26 November 1949. On the occasion Shri N K Prasad, General Manager, N F Railway (Construction)read out the preamble, which was followed by officers and staff at the Head Quarter, Maligaon.

Addressing the staff & officers gathered on the occasion, Shri Prasad said that the constitution day is being celebrated in India as a tribute to all those great people who worked tirelessly to give India her Constitution. Citing about the constitution of India, Shri Prasad said that India is a secular country and the Constitution of India guarantees the freedom of conscience and the right to profess, practice and propagate religion to all. He also remembered Dr B.R. Ambedkar, who was the architect of Indian constitution.

It is mentioned that the day was announced as the Constitution Day by a gazette notification on 19 November 2015 by the Government of India. The announcement came on 11 October 2015 while laying the foundation stone of the B. R. Ambedkar's Statue of Equality memorial in Mumbai.

Shri N K Prasad, General Manager, N F Railway (Construction)read out the preamble, which was followed by officers and staff at the Head Quarter, Maligaon on 26.11.2019.
